The Lord's Supper

The background of the slide is a landscape photograph. It shows a range of mountains, with the foreground mountains in silhouette and the background mountains bathed in a warm, golden light. The sky is a clear gradient, transitioning from a deep blue at the top to a bright yellow and orange near the horizon, suggesting a sunrise or sunset.

The Bread:

1 Peter 4:1-2

“Therefore, since Christ suffered for us in the flesh, arm yourselves also with the same mind, for he who has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin, that he no longer should live the rest of his time in the flesh for the lusts of men, but for the will of God.”

The Fruit of the Vine:

1 Peter 1:17-19

“And if you call on the Father, who without partiality judges according to each one’s work, conduct yourselves throughout the time of your stay here in fear; knowing that you were not redeemed with corruptible things, like silver or gold, from your aimless conduct received by tradition from your fathers, but with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot.”
