Important Information for Church Coordinators

CODE OF ETHICS FOR CHURCH COORDINATORS

- LTC is for the growth and spiritual development of youth. LTC preparation must be the student's own work. Guidance, resources, and encouragement must be provided so students can develop their own ideas.
- Coordinators must place their emphasis on participation and effort rather than on competition and winning. Lesser value comes from winning; maximum value comes from hard work and best efforts.
- Coordinators should make certain that all adults and youth understand and comply with the guidelines of participation in LTC events. This does not mean that we have to agree with all of the guidelines, but that we acknowledge that common ground is necessary in order for us to work together.
- Coordinators that see the need for improvement should seek to bring this about in a positive way, remembering that our young people learn how to handle conflict and difficulty from our example.
- Church Coordinators must emphasize servant leadership. It is not enough to teach public communication skills, but additionally, we must model and teach leadership through servanthood.
- Church Coordinators must find important and needed areas for our youth leaders to be integrated into the overall leadership of the church. Our youth need responsibilities now that give them important roles and allow them to contribute to the church.
- Image Policy is now in place. I understand that an image of my participant(s) may be posted on the Great Plains LTC website or social media accounts. These images would be intended to encourage and grow LTC. I can contact LTC Center if I feel concern about the use of the image of my participant(s).
- Church Coordinators need to communicate these ideas to all parents, church leaders, and youth.

Registration Guidelines

REGISTRATION INFORMATION:

All student registration is now online and can be accessed from the GPLTC.net website or directly at reg.gpltc.net. The Student Registration Form remains in the manual; however, it is given for your convenience as a method of collecting and organizing information for your online registration and should not be mailed to LTC Central. Read all the instructions, forms and watch the registration help videos on the GPLTC.net website before attempting to register. The reference manual has several basic sections: General information about LTC; The guidelines for Pre-Convention One Events (in alphabetical order); the guidelines for Pre-Convention Two Events (in alphabetical order) and Challenge Events; the guidelines for the Convention Events (in alphabetical order).

REGISTRATION FEE:

The registration fee is $40.00 for each participant. A $5.00 per student rebate will apply for groups utilizing convention hotels listed by GPLTC on its website. Congregations whose buildings are located within 40 miles of the convention site will also receive the rebate. Therefore, if congregations stay in GPLTC approved hotels, the effective fee per student remains at $35.00. The registration fee applies to both pre-convention and convention events. All participants who enter only pre-convention events also pay the full registration fee. All participants must be registered online. The entry fee provides each entrant with an LTC T-shirt and an LTC plaque (with plates for each awarded event). The remainder of the fee covers operational costs and funds the LTC scholarship program. There is no registration or attendance fee for adults. Leadership Training for Christ is a 501 (c)3 nonprofit organization. Please note the penalties for late entries below.

REBATE POLICY:

To claim the rebate, the church coordinator must present a copy of the hotel bill for their congregation to LTC Central during the LTC Convention. To receive this rebate, the bill must be from the list of approved GPLTC hotels and should substantially cover the number of students registered by that congregation. Congregations within 40 miles of the convention site can claim their rebates with a letter on congregational letterhead. GPLTC will mail the rebate checks within 2 weeks after the convention.

WHY THE REBATE?

The fees for the convention facilities used by GPLTC are funded by the area hotels who partner with GPLTC. There are other hotels in the area, but only those on GPLTC's approved list help subsidize our convention. When congregations stay at non-participating hotels, they lower the income that goes to fund the GPLTC convention and risk driving student fees up permanently. The rebates are our way of encouraging congregations to stay in hotels that help make the convention possible and keeping the student fee at the same level as long as that is possible.

REFUND POLICY:

Requests for refunds must be submitted in writing. Full refunds will be given if the request is emailed or postmarked no later than the Final Registration Deadline. After that date, no requests for refunds will be accepted. Refunds not claimed by the end of the convention will be considered a donation to the GPLTC scholarship fund. Any student, who has participated in any events, including preconvention events, may not receive a refund.

CONFIRMATION:

Upon receipt of your registration fee a credit for that amount will be posted to your online account. The church coordinator should confirm payments and account balances in the account summary section of the registration website (reg.gpltc.net). This summary is your official confirmation registration has been recognized. If however you did not receive credit within 2 weeks of mailing your payment, please call or e-mail LTC Central to confirm.

CORRECTIONS:

With online registration you are responsible for entering the participants, their events, and creating team information correctly. You can print the Church Report & Team Report from the registration website at any time to double check your registration entries making sure they are all correct prior to the registration deadlines.

TEAM CHANGES:

- To add a team: All team information is completed with the online registration process. Please watch the registration help videos for instructions about creating team lists for all pre-convention as well as convention team events.
- To delete a team: All team information is controlled by you. If a team must be deleted you would remove all members from that team online in the opposite manner that it was originally created. Then remove the event from each participant on that particular team.
- All team additions, modifications or deletions must be completed prior to the final deadline.

LATE ENTRIES OR CORRECTIONS:

After the registration deadline, GPLTC may, at its discretion, accept late entries on a space-available basis only. Those late entries will result in a higher entry fee. Individual students who apply for entry after the registration deadline may have an entry fee of $70 per student (the entry fee is normally $40); such students will only be entered in those events where adequate space is available. Similar penalties will apply for adding events to previously registered students. Teams which are applied for after the registration deadline will be entered on a space-available basis for a fee of $70 per team (a team entered on time has no entry fee). The fee must be paid before the individual or team will be entered into the schedule. A new student cannot replace a deleted student who was entered on time.

About Leadership Training for Christ

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE:

Leadership Training for Christ is an organization designed to stimulate and encourage spiritual, mental, and social growth among young men and women in grades three through twelve. Its mission is to achieve this growth by developing skills in leadership, Bible knowledge, and Christian servanthood. Participants will learn to live the servant leadership lifestyle. Skill development in each of these areas will be accomplished through participation in a variety of individual and group events. These events will take place within the context of a wholesome and supportive environment designed for the purpose of fostering enthusiasm and high achievement among the participants.

A BRIEF HISTORY OF LTC:

In the late 1960's, Jack Zorn began working with the young boys in his congregation. His goal was to develop their leadership skills. Under the name "Lads to Leaders," the program spread to nearby Churches of Christ.

Annual Easter weekend conventions usually held in Nashville, Tennessee, attracted participants from many states.

Eventually, registration at the convention grew to about 3,500. Recognizing that more groups would participate if the convention were closer, an effort was made to establish a Southwest Region of Lads to Leaders/Leaderettes. A regional convention was held in Houston, Texas during the Easter weekend of 1988. Over 700 attended.

Following the 1988 convention, it became obvious to the group from the Southwest that the geographical complications of coordinating two conventions through two boards of widely dispersed members was hindering the basic goal of both groups. The decision to form Leadership Training for Christ was finalized in October, 1988.

Since its origin, LTC has focused on making the annual convention an opportunity to challenge young people to develop in an increasing number of leadership areas. From 1989 to present, conventions have been held in Dallas and Fort Worth, Texas. This convention has become known as the North Texas convention of LTC. Since this time, other convention sites have been added in Phoenix, AZ (Southwest); Kokomo, IN (Upper Midwest); Austin, TX (Central Texas); Tulsa, OK (Great Plains); San Francisco, CA (Western); Kansas City, MO (Heart of America); and Mobile, AL (Southeastern). Each of these conventions is run by an independent board which tailors its convention for its unique area. In 1998 the combined conventions had an attendance of over 7,000 youths; in 2003, the youth attendance was over 10,000. The Eastern convention in Charlotte, NC was added in 2005, and the Northwest convention in Prineville, OR in 2006.

The Great Plains LTC region was founded in 1995 and had its first convention in 1997 at the Adam's Mark Hotel in Tulsa, OK. This board serves AR, CO, KS, LA, OK and portions of North Texas.

Providing Judges

The GPLTC board is committed to pursuing excellence in all matters related to the convention. The pursuit extends to judging as well. It is important to have enough judges for each event to protect the integrity of that event. We are asking each congregation to supply as many judges as possible while still monitoring the participants during the convention. Some of the larger congregations may be supplying more judges because they have more adults attending. We do not want to burden anyone by requesting too many adult judges. However, we are asking the students to commit to this and we feel it is important to ask the adults to commit to this also.

On the Judge Registration Form (JR) is a list of the convention events. Only use the Judges Registration Form for congregation use. All judge registration is completed online. The online judges registration will allow you to choose specific events and time schedules for each judge from your congregation. Estimate the number of adult observers that will be attending the convention with your congregation. Online register the names of as many judges as you can supply from your congregation. Some events have been designated that only females may judge. Others may request a male judge, but may also be filled by a female judge. Submit 1 or 2 (or more) names for each event in which you have kids participating. You may also submit names for events in which you do not have kids participating. It would be especially helpful if each congregation could submit at least one name to be a door monitor for the signing event.

During the online registration process specific time slots are selected and will be forwarded to the event coordinators. These times can be confirmed by contacting the Event Coordinator before the Convention or at the Convention BEFORE the event begins. The church coordinator can modify names of judges and event times but must be completed by the final registration deadline. Congregation coordinators are responsible for making sure that their adults know when and where they are assigned to judge.

3 easy steps to select judges from your congregation!

Step 1: Identify time that your students will be participating.

Step 2: Identify the times that your adults will be available to judge.

Step 3: Register Online the judges names, event and time period. Please make sure the adults follow through on their commitment!

The Judge Registration Form (JR) is still provided in the manual for your use only. All registration of judges is online and must be completed by the final registration deadline. Questions regarding judging and the process should be directed to:

Judging Information

REQUIREMENTS FOR INDIVIDUAL CONGREGATIONS

1. Each congregation may be required to submit a certain number of judges, scorers, or facilitators for a given event based on the number of entrants that they have in an event, and the size of the congregation. Some of these requirements are listed in the manual, and some will be sent to you later based on the entries of your young people. Please do not treat the need for judges as optional. Our young people can only participate if these requirements for judges have been met. Congregations that have not registered their judges online by the final registration deadline, or who have not registered an adequate number of judges for their congregation size will not be allotted time slots for their teams until they do so.
2. Any request (whether by letter, fax, e-mail or phone) by an event coordinator for assistance in locating judges should be answered promptly, in the best interests of your students and LTC. Please answer in a timely manner such requests for judges to ensure that your students will be eligible to participate in that specific event.
3. To answer judging questions regarding a certain event see the event coordinator at the event location at the BEGINNING of the event. Otherwise, Judges should be at the correct location, ready to judge, 15 minutes before their scheduled judging time.
4. Judges should be intimately familiar with the guidelines and judging criteria of each event they judge.
5. Judges must not double-schedule time. If they commit to judge an event, they will stay and complete their judging assignment until every child has received a full and fair evaluation. Anything less will not be considered a fulfillment of the requirement to provide a judge, and LTC can withhold results for a congregation in that event.
6. Those persons with the greatest experience in a given event, who have the ability to encourage and not just critique, are the best candidates for judging positions. Our young people deserve better than just warm bodies.

CONGREGATION COORDINATORS;

1. Select individuals to judge who are conscientious and dedicated to fulfilling their duties as a judge.
2. Educate your members as to the need and importance of judging.
3. Provide adults who are judging with the rules/criteria for the events to which they have been assigned.
4. Fulfill your congregation's responsibility to provide an ample number of judges in the events in which you compete.

JUDGING OF CHALLENGE EVENTS

1. Essentially, the local congregation's event coach or congregational coordinator prejudices all challenge events. The event coordinator or others they may designate will review the submitted documentation for these events.
2. Those who judge the work at the local level will make every effort to: (a) keep the standards high, (b) make certain that the student actually performed the work listed, and (c) make certain that this work was done with only a reasonable amount of adult supervision.
3. Remember that these are supposed to be "challenges" and not "gimmies."
4. Make certain that the documentation is legible and understandable.
5. In the event that the event coordinator has any questions about an individual's documentation, they will call and discuss the situation with the congregational coordinator. All decisions of the event coordinator will be final.

JUDGING AT THE CONVENTION:

Every event at LTC requires adults to make judgments of how a young person's work meets the standards outlined in this book. For all of those who judge, the following ideas must be central to their attitude and comments as judges.

1. Every student deserves the opportunity to perform their event in front of judges that care about them.
2. An LTC judge should be familiar with the rules/criteria for the event he or she is judging.
3. Every young person ought to receive positive encouragement to perform to high standards.
4. Positive and constructive feedback is the means by which students learn how to improve. Therefore, each judging sheet should provide that feedback in the written comments. To merely mark a category, "OK," or "needs improvement" gives a young person no clear direction on how to improve. Judges must be willing to take the time and effort to give this positive feedback.

5. Comments on the judging sheets are private and should not be shared with other judges, adults or students.
6. Students are to be judged solely by the criteria listed. There will be no “unwritten rules” applied under any circumstances. Judges should not use any judging standard that is not explicitly spelled out in the event guidelines. Having “understood” or “hidden” requirements to succeed in an event is unethical and discouraging.
7. Failing to show up for an event you have agreed to judge is tantamount to telling the kids participating in that event that you do not care about them.
8. Judges at LTC should not focus on the resources used (elaborate and expensive costumes, for example), but rather on how the youth made use of the resources that they had available to them.
9. The uniqueness of each individual must be taken into account; the question is not, “Is this how I would have done it?” but, “Did this young person meet the standard, or not?”
10. The judge must try to gauge the amount of effort that the youth has put into the work and encourage those who are obviously working very hard to do their best.
11. A true reckoning of the age-adjusted abilities of each youth must be found. Obviously there would be different standards of performance (in song leading, for example) for a beginning fourth grader, a seventh grader struggling with a changing voice, and a very experienced senior.
12. Judges should not be biased in their work, and should remove themselves from judging any team or individual whom they cannot judge without such bias (positive or negative).

Convention Etiquette Guidelines

1. All Church Coordinators are responsible for ensuring that these guidelines are reviewed with each member of their group and that each person fully understands what is expected.
2. It is expected that all convention participants will be on their best behavior. Remember that we are guests in the hotels and convention center.
3. Always be aware of your noise level in the hallways, foyers, and rooms.
4. Always walk in the corridors and other public places.
5. Allow others plenty of access to public facilities by properly using elevators and corridors.
6. Take special care to protect hotel and LTC property.
7. Stay on the hotel or convention center property unless accompanied by an adult sponsor.
8. Adult sponsors and participants are subject to the dress code for this convention: no shorts, no hats, no bathing suits, no inappropriate t-shirts. This rule applies in the convention facilities and the convention hotels.
9. Remember there is a general curfew for all convention participants at 11:15 p.m., both Friday and Saturday night. This will be strictly enforced by convention and hotel staff. Students must be in their rooms after curfew unless accompanied by their adult sponsor.
10. The name tag you receive at registration serves as your credentials for the convention. It must be worn at all times, even when you are not actively involved in an event.
11. It is recommended that participants locate the rooms in which they will participate at least 30 minutes prior to the starting time of each event.
12. Stay in the event room during the time when students are participating. Each event area will have specific guidelines about entering and exiting the room.
13. Men (regardless of age) will honor the guidelines that exclude them from being present during Women's Speech, Bible Reading, and Song Leading. Participation in these events may be videotaped (by women), but men are not to be in the room during student participation.
14. LTC Central will be staffed until 9:00 p.m. Friday night, and until 5:30 p.m. Saturday afternoon.
15. No individual or organization may market, sell, give, or distribute any merchandise, recordings, flyers, information, or services without the prior written consent of the GPLTC board. Such consent must be applied for and received in advance of the convention.

REMEMBER THAT PEOPLE'S IMPRESSIONS OF CHRIST AND HIS CHURCH ARE DIRECTLY AFFECTED BY YOUR BEHAVIOR. CREATE A POSITIVE REFLECTION OF YOUR CONGREGATION, YOUR FAMILY, AND CHRIST BY MAINTAINING HIGH STANDARDS OF CONDUCT.

THE CHURCH COORDINATOR SHOULD COPY THIS PAGE AND GIVE A COPY TO EACH PERSON COMING TO THE CONVENTION

An Explanation of GPLTC's Policy on Men at Women's Events

Since its inception, the Great Plains Convention of Leadership Training for Christ has made it a policy that boys and men are not allowed in the rooms where young women participate in Bible Reading, Song Leading, and Speech. On occasions, both adults and students have asked for an explanation of this policy.

When this convention began, the GPLTC board was aware that the other conventions had tried two different policies: the first was the exclusion of men from the rooms where women competed (we will call this an "exclusive" policy), and the second was to allow men to come into the rooms as observers since these events are in fact training exercises and not actually worship events (we will call this an "open door" policy). Different individuals and congregations disagreed with both policies. Regardless of which policy the other boards chose, both sides put forth arguments using scriptures for their opposing opinions.

During the organization of the Tulsa convention, several congregations came to the board desiring a clear statement of what this convention's policy would be. Some churches would allow their young people to participate in LTC only if this convention had an exclusive policy for women's events. Other congregations were comfortable with the open door practices of other conventions. A decision became necessary for the GPLTC convention as well.

After considerable debate and discussion, it became obvious that neither side was going to be able to persuade the other side to their point of view. Some fathers understandably invoked their God-given parental right to educate and encourage their daughters. Some young women expressed their nervousness about having male observers in the room. Different elders (and different elderships) had varying opinions. Since a resolution could not be found on the main issue, and all of those parties remained important to this organization, other principles relevant to the decision were considered.

Two principles from the early church (and the Restoration Movement) seemed particularly pertinent: unity and inclusivity. First, in times of irresolvable conflict, that action which leads to unity must be preferred (Rom. 14-15). One of the objectives of GPLTC was to provide a united platform upon which all young Christians (and congregations of the Lord's church) could come together in order to grow their giftedness and glorify God. Division weakens the church and displeases God. Second, the body of Christ must also strive to include everyone (Gal. 3:28). By designing LTC so as to allow a diverse population of Christians (different ethnicities and backgrounds) and congregations (small or large, rural or urban) to participate, the board felt that a godly, if difficult, choice was made.

Since then, disagreement has continued. Some congregations have expressed concerns about drawing clear lines between male and female public roles in the church. Some have asked why individual participants might not make their own decision about whether their event room might be exclusive or open door. Some sponsors have been apprehensive as to whether their young people have enough encouragers in the room to support them. Some parents have asked how they were supposed to explain to their children the restriction of their Christian liberty by other Christians. In every case, we have replied that it was more important to have more Christians able to participate in this program than it was for each person to have the fullest extent of their perceived Christian liberty. Perhaps one of the most important lessons that any leader, young or old, can learn is that liberty has its limits. Christian leaders' real liberty will always be limited by their submission to God's desire for his people to be one people (Rom. 14:13-21; I Cor. 8:9-10; Gal. 5:13-14).

To remove possible barriers and to increase congregational participation, we have maintained an exclusive policy since our beginning year. We are pointedly aware that not everyone agrees with it. We don't ask for everyone to agree with each of our policies, but rather to agree to acknowledge and honor the clearly stated prayer of Jesus Christ: "that they may be one as we are one" (John 17:11). We also ask that all adults and children participating in LTC be made aware of this policy in advance of their coming to the convention. Historically, the parents who have become most upset about this policy have been the ones who were not informed about it in advance by their leadership. Please keep the board in your prayers as they attempt to exercise godly wisdom on behalf of this organization and everyone who is a part of it.

GPLTC Academic Scholarships

To apply for an LTC Scholarship, a student must be registered in the current LTC Convention in grades 9-12. The evaluators of the applications will only have information that is given on the application and will not know the personal life of each student who submits a form. Completing the application in full ensures a student will be able to express all of his/her leadership work.

Students should realize that participation in an activity is not necessarily evidence of leadership. The scholarships are for those who have demonstrated leadership in church, school, and community.

The application for academic scholarships, as discussed here, allow the student to be considered for two types of academic scholarships

THE GEORGE AND ELAINE DAVIS LEADERSHIP SCHOLARSHIPS:

The Great Plains LTC Convention will award scholarships to outstanding applicants in honor of George and Elaine Davis' long and godly service to young people and to LTC. These scholarships are useable at any regionally accredited college or university. For the Davis scholarship, recipients must either use the funds within 5 years from High School graduation, or make special arrangements with the Board (i.e. military service, etc.).

CHRISTIAN COLLEGE/UNIVERSITY SCHOLARSHIPS:

There are Christian Colleges/Universities that partner with GPLTC in order to honor and encourage the leadership attributes that LTC promotes in students. A student who wishes to attend one of these colleges/universities simply should indicate this on the application.

THE PROCESS:

The application is to be filled out on the GPLTC website (<http://gpltc.net/college-scholarship-app/>) and sent in to LTC by the scholarship deadline. Clicking submit will immediately email the contents to the scholarship coordinator. The de-identified information from the application is then sent to a committee comprised of experienced Christians who are: 1 - not members of the LTC board, 2 - have no children who are eligible for any of these scholarships, 3 - are experienced in evaluating Christian leadership, and 4 - are motivated to give out as many of these scholarships as possible.

The scholarships are then awarded to those with the highest scores. After the winners are determined, the names are revealed and the award list is prepared. The scholarships are presented at the convention. The scholarship coordinator will contact church coordinators prior to convention to inform that a student has been slotted to receive a scholarship.

Any questions about this process should be directed to Wes Baldwin, Scholarship Coordinator, (229) 309-6813

GPLTC Mission Scholarship

HOW MISSION SCHOLARSHIPS ARE AWARDED:

To apply for an LTC Mission Scholarship, you must be registered in the current LTC convention in grades 7 -12, or be an Alumni of LTC currently in college or college age. Alumni will have the opportunity to apply for a mission Scholarship up to 4 years following their last participation in LTC.

Applicants will be divided into 3 categories: 7-9 grade, 10-12 grade, and Alumni

THE PROCESS

This application is to be filled out on the GPLTC website (<http://gpltc.net/mission/>) and sent into LTC by the scholarship deadline. Clicking submit will immediately email the contents to the scholarship coordinator. Applications will be scored by a committee comprised of past LTC participants who have served, or are serving, on the mission field.

The scholarships are awarded to those with the highest scores. After the winners are determined, the names are revealed and the award list is prepared. The scholarships will be presented at the convention. The scholarship coordinator will contact church coordinators prior to the convention to inform that a student has been awarded a scholarship.

Any questions about this process should be directed to David Boiles, Scholarship Coordinator
405-823-5866 or sandtrap41@gmail.com

Applications must be submitted by the scholarship deadline date.

Torchbearers

PURPOSE:

GPLTC has created the Torchbearers program to provide a means for college age adults to be involved in the leadership side of LTC. Those selected will be involved in judging events, assisting event coordinators, assisting board members, and any other area of service needed at LTC. The program should produce young adults who have experience with the leadership and administrative side of LTC, producing future coaches, judges, event coordinators, congregational coordinators, volunteers, ministry leaders, and board members.

SCOPE OF THE PROGRAM:

Application Process

1. Those wishing to apply must submit an online application form, résumé, and two letters of recommendation by the scholarship deadline.
2. Résumés should include church involvement, academic achievement, previous LTC experience, other community or leadership activities, etc.
3. Letters of recommendation should include one personal/character recommendation and one recommendation from an elder/minister/deacon from the church the applicant currently attends.
4. The application should be completed online. Résumé and letters of recommendation should be emailed to torchbearers@gpltc.net.

They are expected to arrive for the 3pm orientation on Friday. They are expected to stay until 5pm on Saturday but are invited to stay until after Sunday morning worship.
2. Torchbearers will each serve in four areas throughout their time at the convention.
 1. On call for needed service

4. Torchbearers will have a devotional with their coordinator immediately after the convention devotional on Friday night.

LTC Housing Instructions

LTC Housing hopes to make your stay in Rogers a pleasant one. We will be using the Embassy Suites and a number of other hotels in Rogers and Bentonville. The Embassy Suites hotel is adjacent to the Convention Center. Decisions as to where you stay are up to you as a group leader, but please consider these things: (1) using convention hotels with whom LTC has a contract helps keep your convention costs down, and (2), be aware that the ability of students to have easy access to their room is not always conducive to easy supervision.

RESERVATIONS

Each congregation will be making their own reservations. These reservations will be made on a first-come, first served basis. Please be aware that in order to have a confirmed reservation, you will need to use a credit card.

To make reservations go to the web site at GPLTC.net, then go to the Hotel Information page. On the date that hotel rooms become available, a link will be posted on this page that takes you to the Rogers Convention Bureau hotel room site. An email will be sent to all registered church coordinators on the day that the link is posted.

PLEASE NOTE THESE ADDITIONAL ITEMS:

Room rates vary substantially; each suite can sleep up to six; regular rooms can sleep up to four. Some special suites are available, but they are more expensive than regular rooms. Some suites have multiple room charges (For example, a suite with two bedrooms and a parlor is actually charged as three separate rooms). The rate varies from hotel to hotel. All participating hotels require a credit card number to guarantee your room reservations.

All hotel room charges are subject to state and local occupancy taxes.

All hotel reservations are the responsibility of each church's CONGREGATION COORDINATOR.

The LTC board highly recommends that at least one adult sponsor be in each room with your young people.

Your congregation is responsible for all additional expenses in each room during your stay (including, but not limited to: room service, meals, and damages).

Hotel expenses are not tax exempt in the state of Arkansas.

Convention Displays Area

Convention display space is provided for colleges and universities who support LTC by giving scholarships to students involved in LTC. Other non-profit institutions involved with youth leadership may apply to the board for space by submitting a written request to LTC Central two months in advance of the convention.

No individual or organization may market, sell, give, or distribute any merchandise, recordings, flyers, information, or services without the prior written consent of the GPLTC board. Such consent must be applied for and received in advance of the convention.

Convention Parking

Convention parking in Rogers, AR is free. Do not park in drives entrances near hotel or convention center. Please respect the parking policies of the hotel/convention center and only park in designated parking areas.

The Eagle Award

Volunteers . . . “getting it done in love.” It is the strong belief of those involved in organizing Great Plains Leadership Training for Christ that a servant-leader lifestyle is the essence of Christian living. Therefore, it is the desire of the board of directors of GPLTC to recognize those individuals involved in training and nurturing young people in the servant-leader lifestyle to the extreme. To that end, an effort is being made to gather the names of those from your group that may be considered for this recognition at the convention. This recognition is being called the Eagle Award.

Isaiah 40:28-31 describes a lifestyle of dependence, recognition of weakness and a desire to be set free by a humble lifestyle. We desire to have you submit to us the names of those individuals from your congregation that exemplify the necessary qualities and that you would desire to be recognized at the celebration assembly on Friday evening. One individual, couple, or family from all of the names submitted overall will be recognized by receiving the Eagle Award.

Prayerfully consider those of your group who have in the past and are presently exhibiting an extreme servant-leadership lifestyle as they work with the Leadership Training for Christ instruction of young people. Using the form ea provided in the forms section of this manual, submit the name or names of those you wish to have considered and the pertinent information requested.

Special Accommodations

LTC strives to serve as many young people as possible. Inclusion is to be the express intent and practice of this convention. Consequently, if a congregation has a particular student with special needs or challenges wishing to participate in LTC, please discuss this with us. This student does not necessarily need to be on an Individual Education Program for school to receive this service. It is our goal to modify how individual participants are judged to make a level playing field for all.

We are particularly interested in assisting participants that are challenged with a Learning Disability, Intellectual Disadvantage or Physical Disadvantage to succeed at the highest level they are capable of. A physical disadvantage could be something as simple as a speech issue that comes from using English as a second language. Feedback from Judges has shown that many accommodations we have provided were not necessary for the student to succeed but the accommodations have allowed the participant to relax just by knowing they have been provided with a cushion. This is also helpful in group participation events so the other members of the group do not worry about a disability causing a reduction in their overall score.

We would rather make an accommodation that is not required than allow anxiety to interfere with success.

Mrs. Tracy Risley has many years of experience as a Special Education Teacher and advocate for children and families. She is familiar with creating accommodations to assist students in their area of need.

As soon as you identify a participant with special needs contact Tracy Risley with the following information. It should be received no later than the final registration deadline. If the participant needs accommodations for a pre-convention event the accommodation needs to be made before the pre-convention event deadline.

For convention events a form will be prepared to be attached to the Participant Sheet for each event. These will be placed in the registration packet.. This form, along with a cover sheet, will accompany the Participant Sheet in each event to inform the judges of considerations they should make in judging the participant in individual or group participation.

Confidentiality will be maintained and organized based on the standards established by FERPA, and modified to fit within the unique structure of Great Plains LTC.

Song Writing

PURPOSE:

To develop the ability to express spiritual thoughts and feelings in the form of song. It provides an outlet for a young person's musical interest and talent in the context of the Lord's service. Our hope is that some of these participants will grow up to write compositions suitable for publication and use by future worshipers.

GUIDELINES:

1. Write an original melody and original lyrics. Do not write words "to be sung to the tune of" an existing melody. No awards will be given for lyrics only. The lyrics must adhere to this year's LTC theme. You may, instead of writing original lyrics, set a scripture text to music, which must be noted on your title page.
2. When you have finished your composition, sing it in someone else's hearing to be sure it is as singable as you think it is. Then try teaching it to someone.
3. Harmony is not required, although proper harmonic chords may enhance the composition. Two-part harmony at least is encouraged in the older grade levels. A composition will not have points deducted for being melody only. Improper harmonic chords may result in lower scores.
4. More than one student may work on a composition, but the song will be judged in the division of the oldest. It is intended that all writers of both words and music be student participants. (If done as a team, print a team sheet from the registration website and send it with the entry.) No team number is necessary for this event.
5. Submit your entry on paper that is 8-1/2" x 11" or smaller. It is acceptable to do the scoring by hand or by using computer software. Content – Content refers to information provided through the website including text, graphics, sound, animation or video. How relevant and appropriate is the website content? Is God glorified? Is the reader uplifted? Does content match the purpose of the site?

Banner

PURPOSE:

To give young people an opportunity to develop their talents, creative ideas, and artistic techniques to communicate a biblical thought or theme. The Christian banner should make a clear point and develop a visual representation of the current year's LTC theme.

GUIDELINES:

1. Size: Preferably, the banner shall be no larger than three feet by six feet (including stand). Banners can be oriented horizontally or vertically. Nothing may extend beyond this area. Smaller sizes are permissible.
2. Identification and Submission: Two copies of a Team Event Participant List (even if done by an individual) containing the congregation name, team numbers, age level and list of participants shall be enclosed in an envelope sent in with three digital photos of the banner. The photos should be between 2 and 6 megapixels in size and email to the event coordinator.
3. Materials: Banners are to be made primarily of cloth and are to be two-dimensional. Three-dimensional designs are great on bulletin boards, but unpractical for banners. For the most part, painting of the banner should also be kept to a minimum. Small non-cloth accents can be used such as gemstones, etc.
4. Grade Level/Numbers: There are three grade levels in which to compete: 3-6, 7-9,10-12.
5. The level is determined by the oldest participant on the team. Each congregation may submit any number of teams per grade level. There is a limit of five students per team, but each student may work on only one banner.

AWARDS: There are three ratings available in each grade level – Gold, Silver, and Bronze.

JUDGING CRITERIA:

Theme - How well does the banner depict the theme?

Depicts the theme through text: It is not required to write the theme out on the banner, however, text should be used as one of the main parts of the design. Depicts theme through the use of visuals and also use means other than text: shapes, pictures, designs, etc. Since paper is not allowed, are any photos or pictures transferred to cloth?

Creativity - How well does the banner show creativity? In display of text, how creatively the text is used on the banner? In display of visuals, how creatively are the visuals on the banner arranged and used? How aesthetically pleasing is the banner?

Visual neatness - How "neat" and "clean" the banner is. Are there loose strings, smudges of glue or paint, etc.? How neatly are the letters, shapes, and visuals cut out and applied to the banner?

Use and blending of color - How well do the colors you use go together, and how well do they function? For instance, colors may coordinate, but use of too many dark colors may make the banner hard to read.

Use of cloth materials and decorations - Is the banner made of primarily cloth materials? Small solid objects, like gemstones can be used; larger items, such as mirrors, dolls, figurines, should not be used. Paper cannot be used – this includes the use of photos, pictures, etc. 3-D objects should not be used on a banner.

Overall impact of banner - How well all of the elements of the banner came together to depict the current year's theme? Are there other observations that do not fit into other categories?

COACHES AND COORDINATORS:

- Make certain that the students are correctly registered as LTC participants (whether or not they come to the convention) and complete all requirements by the Pre-Convention Two Event deadline.
- Assist students without doing the work for them.
- Communicate to the church coordinator the number of teams, participants, and grade level of those groups.
- Verify that students are on only one banner team; they may move up, but not down, age group wise.
- Determine that each banner team has a maximum of 6 participants.
- Print a team sheet from the registration website to mail to the event coordinator with a CD containing the photos of the banner. More than one team's photos can be on one CD, but each team should be clearly identified with each set of photos. Mail the CD and team sheet to the event coordinator before the Pre-Convention Two Event deadline.
- Pick up the evaluations on the Saturday evening of the convention.

Essay

PURPOSE:

Written communication has always been an important means of teaching and admonishing Christians. From the time inspired authors gave instruction until today's journals and publications, ideas skillfully and clearly presented have made lasting impressions on the hearts and minds of those who wish to put God's will into practice. This event challenges people to use writing to communicate God's Word. Their writing content, style, and message should reflect a respect for the importance and value of communicating God's Word in written form.

GUIDELINES:

1. The essay length shall be three to five pages. Failure to comply with this guideline will lower the score.
2. The essay should be type written, double spaced with 1" margins. For students sixth grade or younger, handwritten work is admissible if legible and neatly presented.
3. The essay shall start with the title of the essay, followed by the text.
4. Copies of an oratory speech will not be accepted as an essay. Enforcement of this guideline is upon the honor of each individual congregational coordinator.
5. A cover sheet shall be on the front of each entry, and its format is explained below.
6. Grade levels are 3-6, 7-9, 10-12.

SUBMISSION OF ESSAYS: Typed cover sheet shall follow the format of this example:

Event	Essay
Name	A. Christian
Grade	9th Grade
Congregation	Anywhere Church of Christ
Congregation number	999
Congregational Coordinator	B. Saved
Congregation Address	1234 Church Street
City, State, Zip	Any City, State 00000
Title of Composition	"(your title)"
Congregation phone number	214-555-1212

AWARDS: There are three ratings available in each grade level – Gold, Silver, and Bronze.

JUDGING CRITERIA:

The essay will be rated on the use of the assigned theme. The essay should blend creativity with the theme.

The essay will be rated on the proper use of the English language, word usage, spelling, grammar and punctuation.

The essay will be rated on its structure as an essay. The current year's LTC theme should be clearly introduced in the beginning of the paper. The thesis statement should be clearly seen, and be supported by three to five points in the body of the work. The essay should end with a conclusion sustained by the previous materials.

The essay will be rated on readability. This concerns relevance to today, correct use of paragraphs, pagination, absence of typographical errors, and the ability to hold a reader's interest.

The overall mood of the writing will be rated. Proper use of humor, personal stories, and illustrations will be evaluated as to the theme. The theme, points, and conclusion should be enhanced by such usage. The work should clearly be seen as the writer's thoughts and expression rather than a collection of the thoughts of others.

COACHES and CHURCH COORDINATORS:

- Guide the students as they write an essay that reflects the current year's LTC theme.
- Make certain that the students are correctly registered as LTC participants (whether or not they come to the convention) and complete all requirements by the Pre-Convention Two Event deadline.
- Help the students prepare and mail a typewritten cover sheet (described above) with the essay (4 copies on 8½ x 11 paper of both title and essay) to the event coordinator.

Challenge Events

The Challenge Events allow any young person with enough commitment to a specific ministry of the church to receive a Gold award at LTC. The following events are challenge events:

Daily Devotional Challenge
Evangelism Challenge
Leadership Challenge
Service Challenge
Teaching Challenge
Worship Challenge

The guidelines for each of these events are on the following pages. For each of these events, the church coordinator or coach must completely fill out a Challenge Submission Form (CSF), listing each participant's name and their earned award. The church coordinator is responsible for verifying that each of these challenges have been properly met. Several of the events give the coach or coordinator a form to keep track of an individual's effort: Evangelism Challenge, Scripture Challenge, and Service Challenge. These need to be kept current as the work is done, and a copy is used to prepare the CSF by the Pre-convention Event Two deadline. The forms for individuals are not to be sent in with the submission; only the CSF forms. Please follow the submission instructions found with each individual event.

Copies of these completed forms should always be kept at the participating congregation.

Bible Application

PURPOSE:

Students will have a strong knowledge of the Biblical texts being studied and how they apply to real world scenarios. They will work as a team to answer a series of essay questions that will evaluate their knowledge of the material, how it applies to life today, and how to put the scriptures into practice.

SCOPE OF THE EVENT:

Subject of study

1. The subject of study for the 2018 Bible Application will be the book of 1 Samuel
2. The text of these books, including all footnotes, will be the source of all questions and answers.

Participation

1. To be eligible to participate, each Bible Application team (including grade level) and team member must be officially registered with LTC by the final registration deadline.
2. A congregation must provide one adult to act as a Facilitator for each Bible Application team it enters.
3. This event is for high school students only.

EVENT GUIDELINES:

1. Team requirements: a team consists of one to five members. To allow time for processing, each team and adult facilitator is to report to the event area 30 minutes prior to the beginning of the event. To be admitted to each session, a team must have each of the following:
 - a. All team members (any number from one to five)
 - b. An adult Facilitator that the team is providing for the Bible Application event
 - c. An official LTC name tag on each player, with the Bible Application team number written on the front of the name tag.
 - d. The team's completed Team Sheet with the names of team members listed at the top and the adult Facilitator at the bottom.

Note carefully: Understand that any team without all four of these requirements will not be allowed to participate (except as provided in guideline 6 below).

- e. Each team member must wear his or her LTC name tag during all Bible Application activities.
2. Teams may include young men and women in grades 9-12.
 3. A congregation may enter any number of teams.
 4. A participant may be a part of only one Bible Application team during the Bible Application event.
 5. No substitutions will be allowed during the Bible Application event. Team members must participate on the same team throughout the entire event.
 6. If a team member misses the beginning of a round, that team may participate without the missing member for that round. The student will not be allowed to participate in that round, and that team will not be allowed to fill the missing member's position with a substitute. The student may participate in the next round.
 7. The Application will be administered in an area with table space and chairs for each team. Teams from the same congregation may not share a common table.
 8. At the beginning of each round, each team will be presented a closed envelope containing five copies of the situation, each page containing a different question about the situation, and five pencils. The envelope must not be opened until instructions are given to do so.
 9. Bibles
 - a. Each team member may use the text of the Bible to complete the Bible Application tests.
 - b. No helps, other than the text of the Bible may be used. Charts, concordances, maps, etc., included in the Bible, may not be used. Texts may be marked in any way desired including writing in the margins.
 - c. No papers may be added to the text, and extra papers must be removed.
 - d. A photocopy may be made of the text only. Guideline 9B also applies to these copies. It is one of our goals to facilitate the learning process as much as possible for all participants. We desire to make it simple.

Therefore, copying of the text is highly recommended. Please photocopy the text using the guidelines listed above in order to provide a fair opportunity for all participants.

10. Spectators

 - b. Spectators and Coaches will remain separated from teams, and silent, during testing periods.
 - c. Spectators are asked not to enter or leave an event area while a round is in process.

Quizzes

1. There will be four rounds of questions. Each round will consist of one scenario or case study that will challenge students to find a passage from that year's text and apply it to the situation.
2. Each scenario will have five different questions to which students must provide responses. These five questions will be the same in all rounds.
3. The questions will be phrased as follows:
 - a. Provide and write out a scripture from the book/books being studied that can be used as a guide for a Christian's thoughts, actions, or behavior in the given scenario.
 - b. Provide a detailed explanation of how the scripture applies to the given scenario.
 - c. Provide a detailed plan of action that a Christian should take in response to the scenario based on the scripture you have provided.
 - d. Discuss the goals of your actions and potential results of your actions. This should include results that might be desired or undesired.
 - e. Discuss how the theme applies to the situation and response.
4. Students will have 5 minutes to find an applicable scripture, plan a response and assign roles to team members. During these five minutes, no writing is to be done. There will then be an additional 10 minutes to write down their response in an organized manner. It is acceptable for one paper to include the scripture, another to include an explanation of relevance, and another paper for the plan of action, etc., so that multiple team members can be writing at the same time.
5. Students will then place all answers back into their envelope to be turned in for judging during the next round.

Answers:

1. In finding and recording answers, each team may work in open conference and mutual assistance.
2. Written responses will not be judged on grammar or spelling, but are expected to be written using full sentences and show organized thought on the topic. They should be legibly written and show understanding of scripture and the application.
3. Answers can be short answer (several sentences), a paragraph, or a brief essay, as best fits the question and students' response.

Judging:

Judging will take place in an adjoining room during the event and will be based on the following criteria:

1. Selected Scripture

 - b. Is it relevant to this situation?
2. Scripture Application
 - a. Do they show how the passage is relevant?
 - b. How is it similar or different?

 - b. Were the outcomes in line with the Bible?
 - c. Did they consider self, others, and God's Kingdom?
 - d. Did they consider potential outcomes that were both positive and negative?

5. Application of Theme
 - a. Did they show how the theme applied to plan?
 - b. Does their response deal with the idea of current year theme?

Each of the five categories will be scored on a scale of 0-3. The total scores will be calculated and medals determined based on overall results.

Preferably, students will read from bound Bibles. Students may use an electronic device or a paper that has the verses printed on it, but best practice teaches youth to be able to find the verses for themselves.
5. Spectators may not leave or enter the room while participants are speaking. This is not a "come and go" event.
6. Any video or audio equipment must be set up prior to the session and must be stationary. No participant may be taped without their advance approval and appropriate notification of the judges.
7. Men will not be allowed in the room where girls are reading.

Signing Levels

There are five Signing Level choices in this event: Levels 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5. Beginners may use Level 1. Signers who have previously received a "gold" rating should advance to a new level to encourage growth of signing skill.

Participant Rules:

5. While they are signing, participants will wear a solid color shirt, blouse, or dress which contrasts with skin tone.
6. All participants will be pre-registered, by congregation, in thirty-minute time slots, in specific rooms. If a participant's name is not on the list or other changes need to be made, go to the signing registration area for resolution.
7. All participants must meet at their assigned room 10 minutes prior to their scheduled time. The absence of some participants may advance the performance time of other participants.

Event Rules

1. The participant will fingerspell his own name and fingerspell the title of the selection he will sign.
2. The participant will sign the selection(s) to a recording provided by the event coordinator at the convention.
3. Ensure that the version of the song follows the publication in this year's Signing Rules. Selections are changed annually.
4. Once the judge has announced the selections, the choice will not be changed.
5. Participants may choose to bring and use a copy of the words for the song and/or scripture. The event coordinator will not provide a copy of the words.
6. Ensure that the participant is ready to interpret the selections as described below.

Words from "Songs of Faith and Praise" Howard Publishing Co. Sign all of the verses.

Signing - Level 1 (Beginners) The participant will choose 1 song or 1 scripture from the following selections:

1 Samuel 12:24 1 Samuel 16:7 Psalm 27:14 Psalm 37:4
Come Thou Almighty King #19 O Worship The King #303

Signing – Level 2 Each participant will learn ALL of the following songs and scriptures. The judges will pick 1 song AND 1 scripture for the participant to sign.

1 Samuel 7:1-4 1 Samuel 12:14-15 Proverbs 3:5-6
King of My Life, I Crown Thee #332 We Will Glorify #578 He's My King #166

Signing – Level 3

Each participant will learn all of the songs and scriptures in Signing Levels 1 and 2. Each participant will sign three items: a recorded 30-second introduction played before the song, then 1 song and 1 scripture as selected by the judges. The introduction will not be scored, but this will allow for the experience of interpreting unpracticed material without being penalized.

SAMPLE INTRODUCTION:

“Good Morning and welcome to LTC Signing for the deaf. We are happy you are here and hope you are blessed by this event. I will now sign a song and a scripture from the Bible as directed by my judges”.

*THIS IS ONLY AN EXAMPLE! The actual introduction will be different at the LTC convention.

Signing - Level 4

Each participant will interpret two items: a two-minute “Communion Thought” SIMILAR to the one included below and one Level 2 song selected by the judges.

SAMPLE COMMUNION THOUGHT

“This is the time in our worship when we look back to the cross and what Jesus did for each of us there. We think of the way He suffered for our sins, the pain and agony that was caused by our thoughts and actions. We think of this bread, His body offered for us. As we eat this bread, let us remember that He died so that we might live. He suffered for our sins, so that we might not die a spiritual death. And as we drink from this cup, the cup containing the fruit of the vine, which represents His blood given for us, let us remember that His blood covers our sins and makes us clean and pure in God's sight. Jesus died so that we would not have to be separated from God for eternity. But more importantly, Jesus rose so that we could live with Him forever. As we participate in this Lord's Supper, let us think of all that means to us. By partaking of this feast, we remember Jesus' death and its significance for us until He comes again to take us home to Heaven”

*THIS IS ONLY AN EXAMPLE! The actual communion thought will be different at the LTC convention.

Signing – Level 5

Interpret a four-minute devotional thought on this year's theme.

Song Leading

PURPOSE:

To encourage the development of song leading skills.

GUIDELINES:

1. There are separate divisions for boys and girls, with four grade levels in each division: 3-4, 5-6, 7-9, 10-12.
2. Only women will be allowed in the room where the girls lead songs.
3. The room for song leading will contain an overhead projector with which to project the songs being led, a projection screen, and ample seating for a large number of singers.
4. The student will bring an overhead transparency of the song they intend to lead, with the CCLI number properly noted at the bottom of the page (see the Note below).
5. In an order designated by the judges in the room, students will lead their songs.
6. Students will announce their name, and congregation number. Then when prompted by the judges, begin the song.
7. The student will lead two, and only two, verses of the chosen song. They may repeat the first stanza if the song is only one stanza long.
8. The audience will remain for all participants so as to provide an adequate number of singers for all leaders.

AWARDS: There are three ratings available in each grade level – Gold, Silver, and Bronze.

NOTE: LTC is aware of current copyright laws concerning music. We strongly encourage all congregations and LTC participants to consider and adhere to these laws. We have secured a CCLI license to provide for a convention within the bounds of copyright law. This license number should be indicated on all song leading overheads by writing or typing the following at the bottom of the overhead "CCLI # 1198290." If you are interested in obtaining a license for your own congregation, contact:

Christian Copyright Licensing, Inc.
17201 N. E. Sacramento St.
Portland, Oregon 97230

JUDGING CRITERIA:

Pitch and Tempo: Points will be deducted if the song is pitched incorrectly. The tempo should reflect the mood of the song. If one verse is a different tempo, the transition should be smooth.

Volume: The song leader's voice should have good volume and diction as the song is announced and started. Also, the leader should follow the dynamic markings of the music which indicate if the music should be soft or loud.

Beat: The beat of the song should be indicated by the leader; it does not have to be in a 4/4 or 3/4 type pattern, but the beats in the song should be indicated in some manner by the hand.

Verse Transition: Leaders must move well from one verse to the next while letting the audience know their intention. (Two stanzas, and only two stanzas, of the chosen song are to be led.)

Leadership: Leadership is the ability of leaders to show confidence and to get the audience to follow direction. They are expected to set the tone, mood, and atmosphere for the audience. Assertiveness is expected.

Overall Effectiveness: This is the judge's assessment of the overall effectiveness of the song leader.

COACHES and CHURCH COORDINATORS:

- Make certain that the student is correctly registered in this event.
- Be certain that their song leaders are registered for song leading and only song leading for a given time period. No one will be allowed to participate in an event if they have a conflict with another event.
- Make an overhead transparency of each participant's song with the CCLI number properly displayed.
- Make certain that each student arrives at their room in time, and accompanied by at least one encourager.

Speech

PURPOSE:

To provide opportunities for young people to develop their verbal communication talents by honing their public speaking skills and their ability to connect the biblical text to contemporary living.

GUIDELINES:

1. This event is a speech, and not a dramatic interpretation.
2. No speech may be repeated by another speaker.
3. Copies of an essay will not be accepted as an oratory speech (enforcement of this guideline upon the honor of each individual congregation coordinator)
4. Neither participants nor spectators may enter or leave the room while participants are speaking.
5. Any video or audio equipment must be set up prior to the event and must be stationary.
6. Men will not be allowed to listen to the girls' speeches.
7. Each speech shall be related to the current year's theme. However, students in grades three through six may choose to speak about a Bible character as the topic of their speech.
8. Speeches shall be three to six minutes in length; variances may negatively impact the evaluation.
9. It is understood that parent's or coach's involvement in the conceptualization and writing of the speech will differ as participants grow and develop. It is permissible for parents or coaches to assist younger participants (3rd - 6th grades). However, it is expected that participants will be heavily involved. By 7th - 8th grade, the work should primarily be that of the participants. By 9th grade and above, all work should be researched and written by the participant. Adherence to this principle cannot be monitored or evaluated by the judges or coordinators and no points are assigned to this area. Church Coordinators and parents will be expected to set the example for participants by enforcing this principle.
10. Props will not be allowed. Any article, either carried or worn, that is referenced in the speech will be considered a prop. The Bible is not a prop. Use of props will negatively affect the award evaluation.
11. Notes are allowed. Positive consideration is given to participants who memorize their material.
12. There will be separate divisions for boys and girls, with grade levels in each division: 3-4, 5-6, 7-9, 10-12.

AWARDS: Awards are given to reward preparation and hard work as well as to recognize excellence in presentation. There are three ratings available in each grade level – Gold, Silver and Bronze.

JUDGING CRITERIA:

Content and Message - The content should relate to the type of facts, examples, illustrations, etc., used to lead to a logical conclusion. The message shall be related to the current year's LTC theme.

Language and Color - The speaker should use good grammar, descriptive words or word pictures, similes, metaphors, and other colorful techniques to bring out his message.

Voice - The speaker should show good variety in voice tone and word speed. He should speak clearly and pronounce words properly. His voice should show sincerity and enthusiasm.

Delivery and Gestures - A good speech flows naturally and continuously, but there is still room for dramatic pauses.

Memorized speeches should be given with feeling. Gestures should also be natural and flowing. They should enhance the words and message of the speech rather than be an obligatory, unfeeling act.

Personality and Attitude - The speaker should allow his personality to show through the words he uses, the smile on his face, the sincerity in his eyes, the tone of his voice, and eye contact with the audience.

Overall Effectiveness - This is the intangible area where the judge considers the overall impression.

COACHES and CHURCH COORDINATOR:

- Make certain that the student is correctly registered in this event.
- Have each speaker at the proper room before the event begins with at least one encourager for support.

The Eagle Award Application Form

Volunteers . . . “getting it done in love.” It is the strong belief of those involved in organizing the Great Plains Leadership Training for Christ that a servant-leader lifestyle is the essence of Christian living. Therefore, it is the desire of the board of directors of GPLTC to recognize those individuals involved in training and nurturing young people in the servant-leader lifestyle to the extreme. To that end, an effort is being made to gather the names of those from your group that may be considered for this recognition at the Convention. This recognition is being called the Eagle Award.

Isaiah 40:28-31 describes a lifestyle of dependence, recognition of weakness and a desire to be set free by a humble lifestyle. We desire to have you submit to us the names of those individuals from your congregation that exemplify the necessary qualities and that you would desire to be recognized. One individual, couple, or family from all of the names submitted overall will be recognized by receiving the Eagle Award.

Prayerfully consider those of your group who have in the past and are presently exhibiting an extreme servant-leadership lifestyle as they work with the Leadership Training for Christ instruction of young people. Using the form provided, submit the name(s) of those you wish to have considered and the pertinent information requested by Final Registration

Deadline: Entries should be mailed to: Eagle Award, P. O. Box 1046, Duncan, OK 73534.
